

Supper Time

When I was but a boy in days of child-hood I used to play till evening shadows come Then winding down an old familiar pathway I heard my mother call at set of sun.

One day beside her bedside I was kneeling. And angel wings were winnowing the air. She heard the call for supper Time in heaven And now I know she's waiting for me there.

In vision now I see her standing yonder and her familiar voice I heart once more, The banquet table's ready up in heaven It's supper time upon the golden strand.

Chorus:

Come home, come home it's supper time,
The shadows lengthen fast,
Come home, come home it's supper time;
We're going home at last.

“The Challenge of the Seven Divine Freedoms”

Text: “The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.” Psalms 23:1-6
